SECTION - B(Descriptive Type Questions)

1. Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow :

It was a chilly winter night. Saint Socrates was preaching his disciples. His wife asked him to end the discourse. Socrates did not oblige her. At midnight she got angry. She took a bucket of water and poured it on him. Socrates was just laughing. But his disciples were annoyed with the preceptress. Socrates told them, "I am a saint who is expected not to lose patience and temper even in precarious situation. My wife tested me and I got success. She is my preceptor. Don't revile her". Having heard this, she fell on the feet of Socrates and begged for his pardon. Since then she became a good wife and a humane woman.

Questions :

- | | |
|---|---|
| i) What was Socrates doing at midnight ? | 1 |
| ii) What did his wife do ? | 2 |
| iii) What did he explain to his disciples ? | 2 |
| iv) Why were his disciples annoyed ? | 2 |

OR

Once Amar Singh, the General of Shah Jahan's army, was passing through a desert. He saw a desperate man dying out of thirst. Amar Singh gave him water to drink. The man was now relaxed. He had got new life. He said to him, 'Amar Singh, you saved my life. I am a Pathan named Narshahwaj Khan. I will shed my blood for you and your family, if needed.' The Pathan proved true to his word. When Amar Singh was killed treacherously and his dead body was captured by Shah Jahan, Narshahwaj Khan came with his army and fought against the vast army of Shah Jahan. He with his entire army was killed in the battle. But, he immortalized the tale of gratitude and friendship.

Questions :

- i) Who was Amar Singh and who was Narshahwaj Khan ? 1
- ii) How did Amar Singh save his life ? 2
- iii) What did Narshahwaj Khan say to Amar Singh ? 2

2. Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow :

There was a pious peasant in Russia, satisfied with his limited means. Once an imp stole his only piece of bread. The peasant drank a glassful of water and felt happy. The imp got irritated. He disguised himself and worked with the peasant as his servant. On his advice the peasant produced good crop. The imp then instigated him to prepare wine from the surplus corn. The peasant did so. He invited his friends and began to make merry. Under the effect of intoxication, the peasant lost good senses. He abused his beloved wife and quarrelled with his friends. He fell into mud and grunted like a pig. It's true ; when you have limited means, the animal within you is under control. If you possess means or power more than your needs, you get corrupt and your fall is inevitable.

Questions :

- | | |
|---|---|
| i) What sort of man was the peasant ? | 1 |
| ii) What did the imp advise him ? | 2 |
| iii) Why did the peasant abuse his beloved wife ? | 2 |

OR

The concept of renewable energy has gained significant attention in recent years to reduce the dependence on fossil fuels and combat climate change. Solar, wind, hydroelectric, geothermal and biomass are examples of renewable energy sources. These sources are considered renewable because they can be replenished naturally, unlike fossil fuels, which take millions of years to form and are finite. One of the main advantages of renewable energy is that it is environmentally friendly. Renewable energy sources do not produce greenhouse gases, which contribute to climate change. They also do not produce harmful air pollutants like sulphur dioxide and nitrogen oxide.

Questions :

- i) What is renewable energy ? 1
- ii) What are the examples of renewable energy sources ? 2
- iii) What is the main advantage of renewable energy ? 2
- iv) Give two examples of harmful air pollutants. 2

I feel that all my beauty's lost

On cold, indifferent eyes

And offering what I want to give

Would only be unwise.

But then a friend will greet me.

And my inner life will bloom

It only takes but one kind word

To sweep away the gloom !

Questions :

- | | |
|--|---|
| i) What does 'indifferent' mean ? | 2 |
| ii) What is this poem about ? | 2 |
| iii) What does the poet feel sometimes ? | 2 |
